

Bolus Technician

Zycom Surveillance (Nig) Ltd seeks to employ and train technicians to apply/insert Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) device, for the purpose of cattle identification and monitoring, aimed at eradicating cattle rustling and related incidents.

Essential Duties & Responsibilities

Technicians will be trained and certified to perform the following duties:

- Handle, position and restrain cattle manually and in working chutes safely and friendly;
- Ability to individually lift heavy weights without assistance;
- Ability to safely apply the bolus orally and visual tag in the ear of cattle;
- Ability to record cattle ID and related field data manually and on data collection device;
- Ability to work long hours daily/weekly/monthly in a fast paste working environment;
- Ensure compliance with all ISO/ICAP procedures, rules and regulations.

Minimum Experience & Education

- Self motivated, responsible, reliable and eager individuals.
- High School Certificate or Animal husbandry training with a minimum of five (5) years industry experience in cattle handling and performance.
- Good written and communication skills are required;

Training

Employee will be fully trained and certified in the Zycom cattle identification solution system.

Salary & Benefits

- Annual salary of one million eight hundred thousand (N1.8M) Naira, subject to increase after first year successful employment evaluation;

Please send your resume for consideration at careers@zycomsurvng.com